

Program Director: L. Stephen Bly

Program Overview

The program is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the digital journalism industry. The curriculum includes courses in digital journalism, multimedia journalism, and digital storytelling. Students will also gain hands-on experience through internships and practical projects.

The program is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the digital journalism industry. The curriculum includes courses in digital journalism, multimedia journalism, and digital storytelling. Students will also gain hands-on experience through internships and practical projects.